567th AAA (AW) Battalion

1968

Roanoke, Virginia

PROGRAM

Prelude ..... Meditation

Invocation ..... Winston F. Warwick, Chaplain

Reverently we bow our heads in memory of those who gave their lives that civilization might be saved. Give us strength, O God, to go on toward the ideals for which they died. So may we, in our own day and place, complete the sacrifice they made, unto the saving of the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hymn: "I'll Walk with God"

Scripture

Poem: "Memorial Day" ..... Chaplain

The bugle echoes shrill and sweet,
But not of war it sings today.
The road is rhythmic with the feet
Of men-at-arms who come to pray.
The roses blossom white and red
On tombs where weary soldiers lie;
Flags wave above the honored dead
And martial music cleaves the sky.
Above the wreath-strewn graves we kneel,
They kept the faith and fought the fight.
Through flying lead and crimson steel
They plunged for Freedom and the Right.
May we, their grateful comrades, learn
Their strength, who lie beneath this sod,
Who went through fire and death to earn
At last the accolade of God.

To the deceased members
of the
567th AAA (AW) Battalion
(World War II — “E. T. O.”)
their families and friends,
this program is dedicated,
In the year 1968—
twenty-four years after the first landing
on European shores.

To all of us — a lasting memory with enduring ties.
